

We Need

.....If you listen you'll feel it.

A lot have harmonized about it.

Its vision invoke the laughter of children.

Its been right there absent of fear.

With so much passion it will bring a tear.

Caresser of a tropical breeze.

Forever saying bless u, when you sneeze.

Upon the threshold of your consciousness it reasons.

Always adding, never subtracting.

There is no exerting, for it waits.

When it consumes, then you'll swoon.

So softly breathing, a distinctive tune.

And when it does, velcro you rejoice.

Emitting vocals with a rejuvenated voice.

Thankful you have it, It, forever lasts.....
